Carl Griffin announces candidacy for Florida House Rep District 23

Marion County, Florida – Decades established local business owner, Carl Griffin, on June 21, 2018, qualified for the office of Florida House of Representatives, district 23.

Carl's main goal in seeking office - to improve the Marion County economy through increased tourism, local trade and manufacturing initiatives, and effective stewardship of County resources.

In addition to financial and economic growth Mr. Griffin will pay specific attention to Marion County schools performance. Marion County currently ranks 61st in Florida school performance, falling three points since the 2017 ranking – a downward trend that MUST be reversed.

“Working Smart and Hard – that is the key to success!”, Griffin said.

“Decades of experience in Florida businesses, law enforcement, as an officer of the court, the Merchant Marines, and the practice of Law have prepared me to take on the role of District 23 representative.”

The Griffin family has been in Florida for over 250 years and Carl owns and operates an agro-tourism and Horse facility destination in Fort McCoy – a working example of responsible and sustainable business.

Election day is Tuesday, Nov. 6, 2018. You can learn more about Carl Griffin and his campaign by visiting www.voteforcarl.com.

Carl Griffin Announces Candidacy for House of Representatives, District 23

Ft. McCoy, FL July 2, 2018: Carl Griffin announced today that on June 21, 2018, he qualified for the office of House of Representatives, District 23. Carl is a native Floridian with strong family roots to this and surrounding areas. He and his family have been instrumental in the betterment of Florida for over 250 years. Carl's main goal is to improve the economy of all Marion County residents while maintaining the "Old Florida charm" of this area, keeping in mind its ecological history and protecting the children of Marion County. In other words, the citizens of District 23 need a representative who will work for them and make their voices heard in the House of Representatives. Carl Griffin is a man who produces and gets things done.

He is a practicing attorney and has an agro-tourism and horse facility in Ft. McCoy. Mr. Griffin graduated Rollins College and received his law degree (J.D.) from the University of Memphis Law School.

Mr. Griffin has spent most of his adult life as a public servant, having enlisted and served in the Coast Guard, presently an officer in the Merchant Marines, served as a police officer, Florida State Trooper and a former prosecutor.

He resides with his daughter, Carlie, and Frankie, the Pug.
